The Two Constitutions—Their Presise

That our readers may know exactly wherein the Constitution of the Confederate States dif-furs from the Constitution of the United States, we subjoin the following alterations and amend-ments embracing all that have been made: ALTER ATTONS.

gether compose the Supreme Bench, a majority of them constituting a quorum.

4th. Wherever the word "Union" occurs in the United States Constitution the word "Confederacy" is substituted.

**That—what a thousand dollar bill is it access that—that a man of your appearance in the united States Constitution the word "Confederacy" is substituted.

**That—what a thousand dollar bill is it access that—that a man of your appearance in the united States Constitution the word "Confederacy" is substituted.

**That—what a thousand dollar bill is it access that—that a man of your appearance in the united States Constitution the word "Confederacy" is substituted.

THE FOLLOWING ARE THE ADDESTONS:

lat. The President may veto any separate appropriation without vetoing the whole bill in which it is contained.

2d. The slave trade is prohibited.

3d. Congress is empowered to prohibit the in troduction of slaves from any State not a member of this Confederacy.

4th. All appropriations must be upon the demand of the President or Heads of Departments.

1st. There is no prohibition on members of Congress holding other offices of hour and emolument under the Provisional Government.

2d. There is no provision for a neutral spot for the location of a seat of Government, or for sites for forts, arsenals and dockyards. Consequently, there is no reference made to the Territorial powers of the Provisional Government.

3d. The section in the old Constitution in ref-3d. The section in the old Constitution in ref-erence to espitation and other direct taxes is omitted; also, the section providing that no tax or duty shall be laid on any exports.

4th. The prohibition on States keeping troops or ships of war in time of peace is omitted.

5th. The Constitution being provisional mere-ly, no provision is made for its ratification.

AMENDMENTS. 1st. The fugitive slave clause of the old Con-stitution is so amended as to contain the word "slave," and to provide for full compensation in cases of abduction or forcible rescue on the part of the State in which such abduction or rescue may take place.

2d. Congress, by a vote of two-thirds, may at any time alter or amend the Constitution.

LIST OF CADETS APPOINTED "ST LARGE" BY THE PARSIDENT, FERNUARY 13rm, 1861.

1. R. Buchanan Wade, son of Lieutemant Colonel R. Dean Arden Wade, who was twice brevetted for gallantry in the Florida war, and at Molino del Rey, and died of wounds received at Churchaseo.

11. James B. Breese, (resppointed.)
12. Satterlee Clarke Plummer, son of Captain J. B. Plummer, of the Army.
13. Charles H. Cockey, whose angestors were distinguished in the Revolutionary war.
14. S. Lane Haymen, a descendant of Gen. The Weekly Statesman

Anthony Wayne.
William Gadaby, Jr., is appointed from the listrict of Columbia.

man who has the love and smile of woman to accompany him in every department of life.—
The world may look dark and cheerless without —enemics may gather in his path—but when he returns to the fireside, and feels the tender love of woman, he forgets his cares and troubles, and is comparatively a happy man. He is but half prepared for the journey of life, who has no loving, sympathising companion, who will foreake him in no emergency—who will divide his sorrows, increase his joys, lift the veil from his heart, and throw sunshine amid the darkest scenes. No, that man cannot be misserable who has such a companion, be he ever so poor, despised, and trodden upon by the world.

PLAN FOR a New Cerv.—It was recently remarked dy the "Builder," that a spider's web furnishes a better plan for the laying out of new cities, than any which has yet been devised by surveyors and engineers. Any one who can flad a distinct and complete web unbroken, will see how beautifully and regular it is, and how perfectly adapted for the quickest passage from any one point to another. The concentric rings are not circles, but polygons; the radiating exqualitely regular and straight.

Humann.—In a cold day of vinter, when a boune's bits are full of frost, always warm, them thoroughly before placing them in the mouth. Not to do this is very cruel. Apply your tongue, or even a wet finger, to a very cold plece of fron, and you can appreciate the importance of this bint. Is may be a little trouble to do it, but is should be done. The treat may be taken out conveniently by placing the bits in

The Dutchman and his $1,000 Bill.

Away back in the State of New York lives

Away back in the State of New York lives a Dutch farmer, well to do in the world, who always keeps by him a $1,000 bill. With this bill in his pocket, and a shabby cont on his back, he prides himself on playing tricks on strangers, particularly such country merchints as have recently commenced business in the neighborhood, and are not acquainted with his pecuniary circumstances. As an instance of this kind, he went lately to a new merchant, with his clothes all in rage, his toes sticking out of his shoes, his hat without a crown, his heard a fortnight old, and ordered a few dollars' worth of goods. The merchant stared at him, but as there could be no great hazard in laying out the articles for him, none of which were to be cut, he executed the command. When the goods were ready, the merchant stared still more to hear his sourvy looking customer ask him to charge them. "Charge them!" excluded the man of merchandise, "ha! ha! ha! we are not in the habit of charging our goods to everybody. We keep lst. The Provisional Constitution differs from the other in this: That the legislative powers of the Provisional Government are vested in the Congress now assembled, and this body exercises all the functions that are exercised by either or both branches of the United States Government.

2d. Montgomery is made the temporary seat of Government.

3d. This Constitution is to continue one year, unless altered by a permanent Government.

Note the reanimated form of remarkable, eccentric John Randolph, habited in a swallow tail coat of black, badly cut pants, black vest, flowing silk handkerchief of the same sombre bue, flashy pendant watch chain, heavy seals, golden rimmed eye glasses, and a beaver cooked on the side of the head, and you have a faint dee of Stephens, of Georgia. Until you look at the face a long time, however, you have no conception of the man. To picture the countries of the same sombre bue, flashy pendant watch chain, heavy seals, golden rimmed eye glasses, and a beaver cooked on the side of the head, and you have a faint less of Government.

Privatement, Jan. 11, 1860.

Da. Krysen:—My wife has been afficied with a task cough and difficulty of breathing, for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually lowers in violence. The complaint has been bereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case, I procured some of year Pectoral Cough Syrap. I bought, the first time, a fifty cant bottle, which relieved her vary much; I thus a slight cant to the cough better time, a fifty cant bottle, which cused her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one doze I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this If you desire to do so.

WM. WILSON, Alderman Fifth Ward.

PITTEBERSH, Nov. 18, 1858.

DR. KRYNER:—Although not an advecate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me piensure indescribe ble to recommend your Pectoral Byrup. As a medicine it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afficined with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any hind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less, in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a faw does of the above figury it would relieve me entirely.

In secommending this medicine, I must enhestistingly any that it is the best remedy I ever found, purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully.

GOL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PROTORAL SYRUP.—Dr. Keyers—Dear Sir. Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Gough Syrup sconer. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it.s. Rimoded the noise out of my cough and the worst doe I was ever sufficied with I have not used more than one half of the bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than Lever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of graditude for inventing so acceliont a runsely. You are at liberty to use my same in this regard, as you think proper E. F. PRATT.
